Zaslání pracoviště emailem

The screenshot illustrates the process of sending a location via email. On the left, a menu bar includes 'New', 'Edit', 'Send', and 'More'. A red arrow points to the 'Send' option. Below the menu, a list of location types is shown: 'Location', 'Home', 'Janovice', 'Offline', 'Online', and 'Travel'. The 'Janovice' item is selected.

The main dialog box, titled 'Location Transfer', contains the following information:

- To: David Marko/IFT-DIGI-TRADE/DT-NET/CZ@DT-NET
- cc:
- Subject: A location is being sent to you: Janovice
- From: David Marko/IFT-DIGI-TRADE/DT-NET/CZ

Below the header, a message states: "This location has been sent to you. Click "Import Location" to transfer the location to your Contacts application." At the bottom, there are two input fields: "Location Name" with the value "Janovice" and "Location Type" with a dropdown arrow.

The next message is from Samantha Daryn to Pierre Dumont (cc: Gardner Raynes, Simone Dray, Me) at 12:44 PM. The subject is "Project Sofia kicking off soon". The message content is:

Hi everyone!
I set up a Collection called Project Sofia and shared it with you all on the Home page. You should see it there now. It has everything we need for the project and will automatically update itself with the latest information, wherever it may be.

Frank, next steps are to set up a team space and get a weekly meeting going. I'll share around some background info which will show up in the Project Sofia Collection asap. I need to review a couple of things first. We'll have a review with you all to get started!
